Record Orders, Weakest Margins in Years; Valuation Leaves No Room

Est. vs. Actual for Q1FY27: Revenue – IN-LINE; EBITDA – MISS; PAT – MISS
Change in Estimates post Q1FY27 (vs pre-result baseline):
FY27E/FY28E: EBITDA: -17%/-2%; EBIT: -20%/-3%; PAT: -22%/-3%
Recommendation Rationale

- Demand is strong, but order growth has stalled at the margin: Q1FY27 order intake was a record Rs 915 Cr and the backlog rose 32.7% YoY to Rs 2,169 Cr (book-to-bill 1.40x). Data centres and semiconductors now make up over one-fifth of the order bank. However, FY26's 27.4% intake growth came almost entirely from 9MFY26 (~+38%); Q4FY26 intake grew only +1.4% and Q1FY27 +0.5% YoY. The backlog covers only ~9 months of revenue, since average order turnaround is ~6 months.
- Margin reset from commodities and legacy orders: Gross margin fell 230 bps YoY to 36.5% and EBITDA margin fell to 6.3% (Q1FY26: 11.8%), driven by copper inflation, fixed-price legacy orders booked before Dec'25, INR weakness on imports (10–15% of COGS) and April wage hikes. Price-variation clauses are being added but cannot be applied in many government and utility tenders. New Vadodara and Kolkata capacity (Rs 477 Cr invested to Jul'26) arrives in H2FY27.
- Valuation stretched against a shrinking earnings base: The stock trades at 158x TTM EPS and 41.9x P/BV while TTM PAT (Rs 183 Cr) is 32% below FY25. No dividend is paid, and related-party dependence is high (FY27 RPT approval Rs 1,620 Cr).

Sector Outlook: Positive: India's T&D, grid-modernisation and data-centre capex cycle is intact, but largely priced in (peers at 85–115x TTM).
Company Outlook & Guidance: No numerical guidance. Management expects the next three quarters to be better than Q1, with pricing actions and new capacity in H2FY27.
Current Valuation: 80x FY28E P/E (DCF cross-check: Rs 163/share)
Current TP: Rs 965/share (Initiation; no earlier TP)
Recommendation: Even a generous peer-top multiple on recovered FY28E earnings implies 20% downside, and our bull case offers only ~10% upside. We initiate with a SELL rating on the stock.

Financial Performance

In Q1FY27, SEIL reported revenue of Rs 651 Cr, up 4.8% YoY and 10.4% QoQ. EBITDA stood at Rs 41 Cr, down 44% YoY and 18% QoQ. Net profit came in at Rs 12.4 Cr, down 70% YoY and 44% QoQ.

Outlook: We model FY27E/FY28E revenue growth of 12%/17% with EBITDA margins of 11.1%/13.1%. We recommend SELL and value the stock at Rs 965/share (80x FY28E EPS of Rs 12.07), implying 20% downside from the CMP.

Source: Company, Screener.in, Research. All forecast ratios are computed from the projected statements. [4]Current/non-current split not retrieved. FY24A ROE is inflated by a tiny opening equity base (Rs 67 Cr). Screener shows FY26 ROE 38.2% / ROCE 29.6% on a slightly different basis.

The "richly valued MNC subsidiary" problem: ROE has fallen from ~78% (FY25A) to 36% (FY26A) and we forecast 25% for FY27E. Part of this is healthy dilution as retained earnings rebuild equity; part is the margin squeeze. Meanwhile the P/E has expanded, from 108x FY25A EPS to 158x TTM at today's price. The market is paying for the order book and the sector theme, not for delivered profits. Screener displays 149x TTM; our 158x uses TTM PAT of Rs 183.4 Cr (Q2FY26–Q1FY27).

SEIL trades at a ~55% premium to the peer median despite the lowest margin, the only declining earnings trend, net debt and no dividend.

Primary method: P/E on FY28E

FY28E EPS of Rs 12.07 (PAT Rs 289 Cr; revenue +17%, gross margin recovering to 37.8%, EBITDA margin 13.1%). Peers trade at 85–115x TTM, which we estimate at ~60–80x two-year-forward earnings (consensus forward multiples not retrieved). We apply 80x, the top of that range, with no discount for SEIL's weaker margins, smaller scale or related-party exposure. TP = 80 × Rs 12.07 = Rs 965 (-20%), or 118x FY27E EPS. The DCF is shown as a cross-check but not blended; a 75/25 blend would cut the TP to ~Rs 765.

FY27–28E from the model; FY29–36E revenue growth 18% tapering to 10%, EBIT margin rising to 12.5%, capex 4.0% → 2.5% of sales, incremental NWC 17% of incremental sales.

DCF Sensitivity (Rs/share)

WACC \ Terminal g	5.0%	6.0%	7.0%
12%	210	237	275
13%	177	196	220
14%	151	165	182
15%	131	141	153

Bull DCF (≈17% revenue CAGR for 10 yrs, 15% EBIT margin): ~Rs 257 at our WACC; ~Rs 556 at 11% WACC / 7% g.

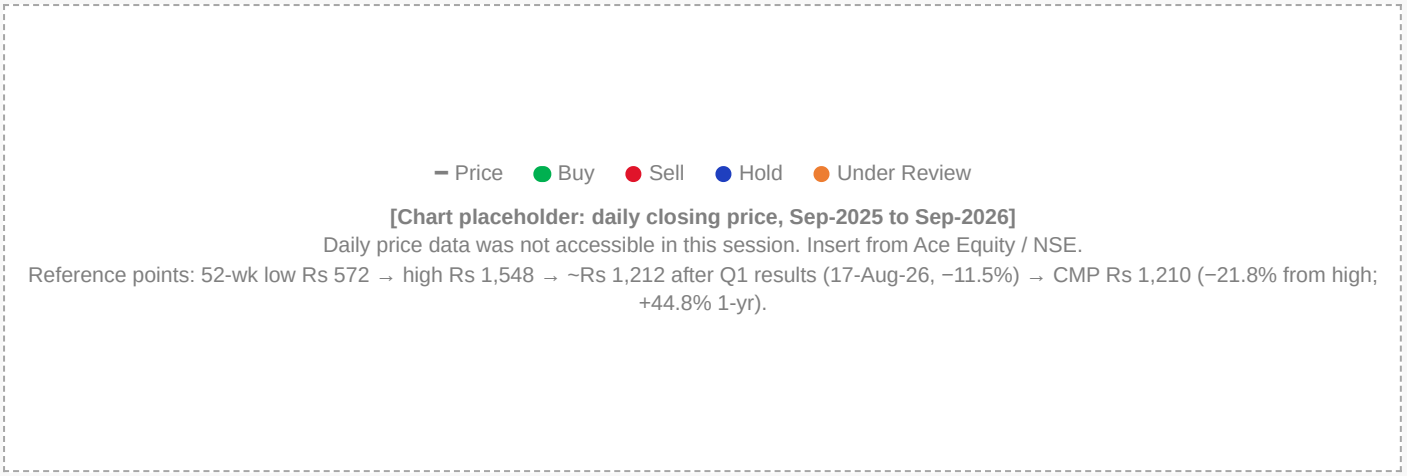

Reconciling ~158x TTM P/E with a DCF of Rs 163

At 6% terminal growth, today's price implies a WACC of ~7.4%, roughly the 10-year G-Sec yield. At our WACC it requires ~13% perpetual growth. We attribute the premium to:

(1) Sector theme (largest): the whole T&D group has re-rated to 85–115x; this is sector beta, not SEIL alpha. (2) MNC brand/technology: real, but peers carry it too. (3) Low free float (meaningful): 25% public, ~Rs 7,200 Cr tradable, with rising DII ownership; this amplifies moves both ways (−11.5% on Q1 results day). (4) Speculative optionality: parent-led restructuring or a buyout, with no disclosed plan; we do not value it.

Our view: theme plus scarcity applied to a shrinking earnings base, with order growth already slowing to +0.5–1.4% YoY. We anchor on a generous peer-forward multiple and show the DCF to make the embedded optimism explicit.

Key Risks

1. Commodity costs: copper, aluminium and steel dominate COGS. Legacy fixed-price orders run off over ~2 quarters, but price-variation clauses are often not allowed in government tenders. Each 100 bps of gross margin ≈ Rs 38 Cr of FY28E EBITDA (~10% of FY28E PAT).
2. Related-party dependence and governance: FY27 material RPT approval of Rs 1,620 Cr (~56% of FY26 revenue, gross two-way flows) with Schneider Electric IT Business India, Schneider Electric India and Schneider Electric Industries SAS. Royalty, management-support and shared-services charges sit inside other expenses; Note 35 amounts were not retrieved. Changes in intercompany pricing move margins outside management's independent control.
3. Labour Codes: caused the −Rs 14.17 Cr FY26 exceptional charge. Rules are still being finalised, so further provisioning is possible, and employee costs have rebased higher.
4. Execution and working capital: debtor days rose from 92 to 103 in FY26. Utility/RDSS customers mean slow collections and dispatch deferrals. Pending disputes: Rs 17.12 Cr income-tax demand (ITAT, stayed) and ~Rs 6.55 Cr customs orders.
5. Valuation and de-rating: at ~100x FY28E EPS, a move to peer-forward multiples alone implies about −20%.
6. Low free float: 75% promoter holding means volatile price discovery and limited institutional liquidity.
7. No dividend: none paid for 10+ years, unlike ABB India and Hitachi Energy.

Upside risks to our SELL call: faster price pass-through, a copper correction, large data-centre/semiconductor/export orders, parent-led corporate action (none disclosed), or continued flow-driven sector re-rating.
